Public Advocate Letitia James Remembers Kathleen Grimm

(New York, NY)— On Wednesday, February 18, 2015, New York City Public Advocate released the following statement regarding the passing of Kathleen Grimm, 68, who served as longtime Deputy Chancellor at the New York City Department of Education:

“I am deeply saddened to hear of the passing of my colleague and friend Kathleen Grimm. Kathleen was a dedicated public servant who cared deeply about improving the standards of our student’s learning environments and the quality of our schools. From managing daily operations within the Department of Education, to improving educational outcomes for students and transforming the environments in our schools, Kathleen advocated tirelessly for our students. I will continue to keep Kathleen and her family in my thoughts and prayers,” said New York City Public Advocate Letitia James.
